NAVY DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Dear Mr. Baird

The U. S. Naval Intelligence School conducts a course of instruction five times a year for Naval Attaches prior to their departure for overseas assignments. In previous years, to supplement the Attache Orientation Course, the Central Intelligence Agency has provided guest lectures. In order to assist in meeting the objectives of this course, the services of guest speakers from the Central Intelligence Agency are again requested.

Specifically, it will be greatly appreciated if speakers can be made available as follows:

0900-1200, Monday, 26 June 1961	The Intelligence Community and Organization of CIA
1330-1630, Thursday, 29 June 1961	Sketching as an Aid in Reporting
1000-1200, Wednesday, 12 July 1961	Special Field Relationships
1330-1445, Wednesday, 12 July 1961	Industrial Identification

This confirms informal discussions made with each speaker and as discussed with [redacted] LCDR J. G. BOGDAN, USN, of the Naval Intelligence School faculty is authorized to make detailed arrangements with the requested lecturers.

I wish to express my appreciation to each of the requested speakers for their contributions to the past Attache Orientation Classes and to you for making their services available. Their presentations have contributed materially the overall success of the Naval Attache briefing program and in every case their presentations have been comprehensive, highly knowledgeable, and given in an extremely effective manner.
